

MOUNTAIN DOIN'S

May, 1976

Newsletter of the Western North Carolina Intergroup.
Parkway Office Building, Asheville, N.C. 254-8539

DISTRICT EIGHT MEETING (And Birthday Party)

A district Eight meeting will be held on Sunday, June 13, at the residence of Mack F., of Franklin.

The location is 158 Maple St., across from the Catholic church in Franklin.

The covered dish meal will start at 1:30 p.m. The occasion also will serve as a celebration of Mack F.'s 24th birthday. Wear your eating shirts.

IN MEMORIAM: MR. FRED

A familiar and much respected figure at many meetings in the Asheville area is gone.

Fred C. Clark, known almost universally as Mr. Fred, died May 19.

His friendship, wise counsel and wry, quiet sense of humor will be missed.

QUOTE FROM ABRAHAM L.:

"Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

INTERGROUP MEETING

Intergroup of Western North Carolina will hold its monthly meeting on Sunday, June 20, at 3 p.m. in the Parkway Office Building.

The agenda includes election of a new chairman and secretary as prescribed in the articles of association. There also will be a final vote on incorporation as suggested by the GSO guidelines for central offices and intergroups. Please be sure your group is represented.

REMEMBER THE ALAMO

Just a reminder about the 31st annual Texas State AA Convention scheduled for June 24-27 in the Convention Center in San Antonio.

Peter G., a hereditary Texan, states that the location is only about three blocks from the Alamo.

There also will be some good, Texas-style AA, too.

NEED A SPEAKER?

Comic. Tragic. Moving. Inspirational.
Conversational. Nostalgic. Sober.

All of those adjectives describe the speakers available to your group through Intergroup. When you need a speaker, just call.

MOUNTAIN DOIN'S

''Now my wife wants to take my pet rock to Alanon with her.''

Bob, one of the mainstays of the Wall Street Group, this weekend will crank up his shiny blue campaign and hit out for Texas. His destination is somewhere along the Lincoln Trail, as the Wall Street Group have him on 100. The Wall Street Group have him on 100. This birthday party a few days before he moved

“Good Evening, folks. My name is Bill M and I am an

WESTWARD HO FOR BOB J.

Bob J., one of the mainstays of the Wall Street group, this weekend will crank up his shiny blue camper and light out for Texas. His destination is somewhere along the Chisholm trail.

The Wall Street group gave him an IOU fifth birthday party a few days before he shoved off.