TAR HEEL MIDWINTER CONFERENCE

JAN. 7, 8, 9, AT WINSTON-SALEM

The tenth annual midwinter conference will be held Jan. 7, 8, and 9 at the Hyatt House Hotel in Winston-Salem.

The Hyatt House will be the headquarters for the conference, but two other hosteries are offering special rates for conference guests. They are the Downtowner and The Hilton Inn.

An outstanding list of speakers has been arranged. They will include Barry L., of New York, N.Y.; Paul L., of Louisville, Ky.; Marguerite C., of Houston, Texas; Paul M., of Riverside, Ill., and Cecil C., of Prince Albert, Sask.

MIDWINTER CONFERENCE (Cont.)

The mailing address for the conference is: Conference Chairman, P.O. Box 18412, Raleigh, N.C. 27609.

Registration fee for the conference is $6. The coffee, of course, will be free and will be served around the clock.

Several Asheville and Western North Carolina AAs plan to attend. Why not join them?

DISTRICT SEVEN MEETING

District Seven will meet on Sunday, Jan. 16, in the Episcopal Church on Main Street in Brevard. The meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. Speaker to be announced.

YOUNG PEOPLES' GROUP TO START

A new Young Peoples' Group will hold its first meeting Saturday, Jan. 15, at 12 1/2 Wall Street. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

The new group members will be grateful for whatever support older AA members can afford.

INTERGROUP BOARD MEETS

The WNC Intergroup Board met Sunday, Dec. 19, at the Parkway Office Building.

The principal item of interest from the meeting was agreement on a plan to organize a speaker exchange for groups.

Representatives to Intergroup from the various AA groups here were urged to return to their groups and compile lists of members willing and available to speak at meetings of other groups.

The lists later will be exchanged among the groups. The goal is to supply each group with a list of qualified, available speakers from which to draw for meetings.

NAMES STILL NEEDED

If you are a qualified and available speaker, however, you need not wait for a speaker exchange.

Simply call Intergroup and leave your name, telephone number and the times you are available.

It's good work for an AA and the rewards are there.

All right! All right! If you don't see it, I guess I don't either.

A FRINGE BENEFIT

One of our members who was attending a recent GSR meeting in Greensboro, reached for his wallet after eating a restaurant meal.

No wallet, but no panic, either. The manager let him sign for the tab. Later, retracing his steps, the member found his wallet in a room where he'd attended a workshop earlier. It could only happen to sober people.
