INTERGROUP COUNCIL PLANS MEETING IN BLACK MOUNTAIN

The next regular meeting of the Intergroup Council will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 20, at the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center in Black Mountain.

The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss ways in which Intergroup may be able to improve the help it now affords recovering alcoholics.

All AA groups in the area are invited to send a representative of an alternate representative to this important meeting. Council members, of course, are specially urged to attend.

OFFICE HOURS CHANGED

The Intergroup office in the Parkway Office Building will be open from 9 a.m to noon, five days a week, until further notice.

TRYON GROUP SCHEDULES
FILM ON ALCOHOLISM

The Tryon group will show a motion picture entitled, "For Those Who 'Drink," at its regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 8 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Tryon.

This film has been described as an excellent study on the subject of alcoholism. Members of the western North Carolina groups are invited to make the trip down to Tryon to view it.

HELPING HAND TO MEET

The Helping Hand organization will meet at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 2, in the Serenity Service group quarters at 12 1/2 Wall Street.

DID YOU KNOW?

The AA Grapevine, the magazine for Alcoholics Anonymous, was founded in 1944 as a "meeting in print" for AAs in the armed forces. It has been published each month since that time.

Each issue focuses on the AA way of life and our search for spiritual growth. AAs all over the world share their experience in articles and stories dealing with life's problems. It can, we believe, strengthen your sobriety and nurture your growth in the fellowship.

Do you subscribe to the Grapevine? If not, just write a note to the address below, sending your check for $5 and address (with ZIP Code):

TWELVE STEP GROUP STUDYING AA TRADITIONS

The Twelve Step Study Group is now discussing the AA traditions. It meets Wednesdays, at 8 p.m. in Grace Episcopal Church. Any AA member is welcome to attend.

This Wednesday will be a look at Traditions Four and Five.

ARC NEEDS SPEAKERS

The AA program at the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center in Black Mountain is expanding fast and speakers are needed urgently.

Speakers for all meetings are in short supply, but the need is particularly urgent for speakers for a newly-organized womens' group there.

Diane M. of the Traditional Grp. coordinating the effort. To contact her, call the Intergroup office.

NEED A SPEAKER?

The Greenville, S.C. groups are able to supply speakers for meetings of groups in the Western North Carolina area. Anyone wanting a speaker from Greenville is urged to contact Pete G. at 258-0200. Or at home: 254-0445.

EATING MEETING

A district meeting will be held on Sunday, Nov. 6, in St. James Church in Hendersonville. Bill J. of Black Mountain will speak. Eating at 1:30 p.m., meeting at 2:30 p.m.
