28th ANNUAL KENTUCKY STATE CONF.
SCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 16 - 18

You'll be a little early for the running of the Kentucky Derby, but if you get your reservation in now, you'll be just in time for the 28th Annual Kentucky State Conference to be held in Lexington February 16-18.

The annual conference always has a fine slate of guest speakers and according to all reports received from the sponsors, this year's event will be no exception to the rule.

A.A. speakers include Ann P., of Maryland; Bryant B. of North Carolina; Yev. G., of New York and James K., of Illinois. ALANON will be represented by Donna C., of Tennessee and Carolyn W. of Texas will speak on behalf of Alateen members.

The annual meeting will be held at Lexington's Hyatt Regency Hotel and Civic Center. To register, write to the Host Committee, P.O. Box 23, Barr St. Sta. Lexington, K.Y., 40501. Registration fee is $8 per person for all AA and Alanon members and no charge for Alateens.

.....JEAN W. of the Traditional Group, who also serves as Treasurer of Intergroup, was confined to St. Joseph's Hospital with a slipped disc. Get better soon Jean, we all miss you.....
A dual birthday party was held at Traditional recently, for Mary C. & Lou L., with 8 & 7 Years, respectively, setting another new attendance record.

.....DIANE M., the secretary of that same group, celebrated her first year, with many of her A. A. friends present on Friday February 9th. Any birthday is important, but the first one is always kind of special.....

.....Pete G. paid a visit to town and was at several meetings. How do you like Washington Pete?.....

.....Black Mountain Alanon Group has reported that attendance at their meetings has fallen off. However.....the new Alanon Group at Trinity Episcopal Church in Church St. Asheville is very well attended, on Tuesday nights.....

DID YOU KNOW?.....

There was a multiple A.A. Birth in February. Newly weds Jim and Ruth D.'s dog Tramp D. had 5 A.A. puppies. Sire?.....Lannie O's dog Dooney O.
