April 1986

The Spring Eating Meeting will be hosted by the Sylva-Cullowhee Groups on Sunday, April 13 at 1:30 pm at the Canterbury House behind the WCU stadium in Cullowhee. Bring a covered dish and join us.

The host group for the summer - July eating meeting will be voted on at this meeting.

The Traditional Group will host an Area Meeting on May 4 at Trinity Episcopal Church in Asheville. Eat at 1:30 pm followed by a speaker at 2:30 pm. Bring a covered dish.

There is a new group in Franklin. It is called the New Hope Group and they meet each Wednesday night at 8 pm at the First Methodist Church in Franklin.

Twenty two people from twelve groups, including GSR's, alternates, and visitors attended a very productive General Service Workshop in Sylva on March 9. Many basic resources for our legacies of unity and service were read and discussed using the District Approved Workshop Manual developed in Service Area 49 - SE New York. Subjects in line for discussion at the June workshop are: "How Does the Group Activate the GSR & the DCM?" and "How Does the Group Activate an Informed Group Conscience?"

A Seminar on Alcoholism will be held on Sunday April 20 at the Central United Methodist Church in Clyde at 2 pm. All AA's, Al-Anon's, and visitors are urged to attend and bring a friend.

Ala-Teen meets each Sunday night at 8 pm at the Central United Methodist Church in Clyde.

The District 8 Treasurer reports that the 1985 expenses for the DCM and his alternate are close to being paid. However, the fund is now depleted and we are in arrears for the March 1-2 Committee Meeting expenses. GSR's are reminded to determine your group conscience on this matter and mail your contributions to: District 8 Treasurer, PO Box 1023, Bryson City, NC 28713.

They hope this year that the small groups will send $20 and the larger groups contribute a minimum of $35. Send to: Secretary-Treasurer, NC/ Bermuda Committee, PO Box 11838, Durham, NC 27703.
