4th Step Workshop Well Attended

Attendance Hit 155

Saturday, July 11, dawned bright and warm. By 8 a.m., members of the Asheville Big Book Step Study Group were re-arranging banquet tables and cooking up a storm at the Emma United Methodist Church. At 10am, the 4th Step Workshop began, with an overflow crowd that included folks from as far away Ocala, Naples, and Palm Beach County, Florida; Sandwich, Cape Cod, Massachusetts; and Cincinnati, Ohio. There were lots and lots of local A.A.s, too.

Nine speakers shared their experience on working the resentment, fear, and sex conduct portions of the 4th step as described in the Big Book. Midway through, we all enjoyed grilled chicken, sausage and peppers, fresh green salads and side dishes, and plenty of dessert, coffee, and soft drinks. The event wrapped up just after 2 o'clock, and a rainstorm broke only after most everyone had already gotten back on the road. We're grateful for the tremendous feeling of fellowship and spiritual purpose we felt in the rooms that day!
