Grapevine News

Sometimes prisoners don't have any AA meetings in their facility, and Grapevine is the only meeting they have. Every year, we publish an issue filled with powerful examples of experience, hope and service by members inside and out of prison walls. It's our way of carrying the message from the outside. This month's special section features a few of the many hopeful stories we receive each year.

In the story "Attica's Beacon," a member writes about how one of the oldest continuous prison meetings in the nation has made his life more fulfilling than it ever was on the outside. A mother stays sober during her son's incarceration and learns a few lessons herself in "To Lift His Spirits." In a Florida prison, an AA meeting disappears, but not one man's hope in "Someday, Coffee and Honey Buns." And a member doing correspondence service writes that getting a letter from his friend behind the walls is "The Best Part of My Day."...read all the special-section stories and many more on the A.A. Grapevine Web site. Get your mail, audio-only, or digital subscription!

Current and some past copies of the Grapevine and La Viña may be purchased at Central Office!

From Our Area 51 Delegate, Homer M.

Terry Bedient, Chair, General Service Board is soliciting candidates for two Class A Trustees for AA's General Service Board. Class A Trustees are non-alcoholic members of the Board. Last year's Final Conference Reports have a brief description of the current Class AA Trustee's professional experience and qualifications.

These two three-year terms begin in April 2015. Please email or call me if you or any AA member in your AA community would like to submit a nominee. I will work with you and the nominee to prepare the resumes and provide an opportunity for the nominee to learn more about the position's responsibilities and time commitment. The final resumes are due July 25, 2014...please submit any candidates to me by July 10, to allow time to finalize the submission.

Homer M., NC Delegate, Area 51, Panel 63

From Our Area 51 Chair, Jennifer V.
