Dear North Carolina Mountain Central Office,

As a very grateful recovering alcoholic only a few weeks away from celebrating 1 year of sobriety, I am writing you this letter. On September 9, 2013, sometime before noon, I made a very important decision to call AA as I had finally decided that I had a problem with drinking. After a long weekend of misery, I searched the internet about information on Alcoholism and found your phone number. Full of anxiety, fear, and emotional turmoil, I called and spoke with a very friendly and helpful lady who seemed quite willing to find me a meeting close to my home. Since I was new to Asheville as a summer resident from Florida, I was not too familiar with the area. One thing led to another, and I was handed over to another very caring and sympathetic lady who offered to meet me and take me to a meeting later in the day. That was the beginning of a new and amazing way of life for me! It was during that meeting thru tearful eyes and shaking hands that I took the white chip of surrender...and that kind and wonderful lady from your office was right there beside me. She soon became my sponsor. Today, I am so fortunate to have a wonderful home group both in Florida and Asheville with many fabulous AA friends and supporters. I have completed Step 11 and working on 12 still with that kind and caring lady right there beside me. Helen is not only my sponsor but has become my new best friend. I love her and I love AA. So ...It is to you and your Central Office staff I owe my heartfelt thanks for being there in my time of need. It all started with YOU!

Sincerely, Bonnie G.

“I am responsible . . .

When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help,

I want the hand of A.A. always to be there.

And for that . . . I am responsible.”

— A.A. Grapevine. Reprinted by permission.

“[About]...A.A.’s Responsibility Declaration [above] ...In just a few simple words...the essence of the Fellowship – one alcoholic sharing with another...a fundamental building block for the future of the Fellowship. One hand reaching out for the next—a chain reaction of help, healing, and hope.

For those who have reached out for help, alone and afraid, and been met with the firm, supportive hand of AA, the Responsibility Declaration is an emblem of the lifeline that saved them. And for those A.A.s, sober now, who have taken that outstretched hand into their own, the Declaration is but one small installment on the debt each owes to the Fellowship of A.A.

...As we extend the hand of A.A., responsibility becomes the bedrock upon which happy and purposeful lives can be built.”

—excerpt from the foreword of the book I Am Responsible: The Hand of AA (selected stories from the A.A. Grapevine), page 1, copyright the AA Grapevine, Inc.

The 12th Step Call How did it start? What exactly is the 12-Step List anyway?

How does it work? What are the requirements to do this work?

How do I sign up? Updated 12-Step Volunteer Form <https://tinyurl.com/lwcqkrx>

What are the 12th Step Guidelines?

North Carolina Mountain Central Office’s (NCMCO) new website answers some important questions and provides helpful information for all AA members doing 12th Step calls. At the top tab on our home page <http://aaNCMCO.org>, and click on 12th Step Call.

The 12th Step Guidelines <http://aancmco.org/2th-step-guidelines>

A 12-Step call is a vital part of your program of recovery ~ it is virtually the 12th Step. It is your personal way to help an active alcoholic by sharing your experience, strength, and hope. Here are a few suggestions that experience has shown to be helpful. None of these are musts, but each can make for a better 12-Step call. Please remember, ours is a program of attraction rather than promotion.

- Be available to carry the message. Call back promptly to arrange your visit. Be sure to get directions.
- Never, never, never go alone. Always get someone to go with you, preferably someone with more experience, if possible.
- Men with men and women with women; in an extreme emergency a man/woman team may call on either.
- Look neat and presentable—you are representing recovery in Alcoholics Anonymous.
- Be patient, compassionate, and listen. Share freely of your experience—especially your feelings of loneliness, hopelessness and confusion before A.A.
- Explain the three-fold aspect of the disease (physical, mental and spiritual), stressing that alcoholism is a progressive and often fatal illness.
- Determine the willingness of the person to do something about his/her condition.
- Suggest taking action today. Suggest a time to take this newcomer to a meeting.
- Discuss with the family what A.A. has to offer, and suggest Alanon or Alateen. Leave literature and a meeting list.
- If you are willing, leave your phone number and encourage them to call you.
- Please don’t make any promises you can’t keep.
