Conference Update from G.S.O.

Before any more time slips by, we need your help to provide some accurate information about the 2015 International Convention. It has been brought to our attention that there is some misinformation that is circulating in some groups that the 2015 International Convention has “sold out.” As you know, this is not the case. Please note the following:

- Registration is still open; the International Convention is not “sold out.”
- The Georgia World Congress Center (Convention Center) in Atlanta has ample space to welcome and accommodate more registered attendees than we have had in the past.
- We have ample seating in the Georgia Dome for everyone who has registered and for tens of thousands more registered attendees.
- There is plenty of housing available in Atlanta and outlying areas, as our convention hotel block has been extended and will continue to expand to meet the needs of our attendees.
- We have added dorms to our housing mix for those who are interested in lower room rates and information can be accessed through a link on the housing page from our website.

See article about volunteering at the convention!

District 80 has shifted its fiscal year from April–Mar to the calendar period Jan–Dec. As a result, this year's budget contains only three quarters. Fiscal 2016 starts in Jan and will have the full four quarters.

D80 is still seeking a Special Events Coordinator. Four district-sponsored "eating meeting special events" are hoped for this year. The district wants to plan dates and seeks sponsoring groups. Founders' Day is a separate event and will most likely be held in Murphy this year; last year's event was hosted by Haywood.

CORs aancmco.org

Quarterly COR meetings rotate around the three districts of the Central Office service area. In April we will consider whether joint COR-Board quarterly meetings will be held on weekends. Details regarding day / time / location will be determined then, so be sure to check this space in June re the July quarterly meeting!

Volunteer for 2015 International Convention!

Register on Volunteer Hub at <http://aa80.volunteer-hub.com/signin.aspx> and sign up for the Shuttle Bus committee and any others that you are interested in. Ask others to sign up. Sort of like a volunteer chain letter. You can send the info to anyone you know in AA who might want to get involved.

A big need is for announcing this stuff at every meeting you go to. The more people we can get to volunteer the better. For the shuttle bus committee that I am working on or for any of the others. The thing that interested me in the shuttle bus stuff is that you will get to interact with a ton of people from all over the world and really make a difference helping them find their way places.

Please let your friends know that they can volunteer no matter where they live. Let your out of town friends know that there are a lot of options for places to stay, including dorm rooms at GSU and Ga Tech for $35-$75 per night. All the info is available here:

The Preacher and the Meeting

An AA tells how his home group had to find a new space to avoid hearing the message of the church

Imagine sitting in your first meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous and during the middle of the meeting someone who is not a member of AA addressed the group with a speech on a specific religion and how to properly achieve salvation. If this had happened at my first meeting I am not sure I would have returned. I may have missed out entirely on the message that AA carries to the suffering alcoholic.

About six months ago, one of the longtime members of my home group was asked to meet with one of the elders of the church where our meetings are held. The elder of the church spoke about the...

Thanks goes out to all the dedicated volunteers who serve on the 12-Step Call list – you are the hand of AA that reaches out to the alcoholic in crisis. The lost souls who call our hotline await your return call; your experience, strength and hope could be crucial for their survival.
