Serving AA in Western North Carolina's Districts 70, 71, and 80 since 1974

ICOAA Conference Workshop Review “Getting Groups Involved”

At the ICOAA (Intergroup/Central Office/AA World Service/AA Grapevine) Conference in November, one of the workshops I attended was titled, “Getting Groups Involved.” An idea shared by several participants seemed suited to our Central Office. It involved having “Area Reps” or “Zone Reps,” similar to our District Trustees, visit A.A. groups, with the purpose of informing them about services provided by the Central Office and dispelling the idea that it is just a bookstore.

We are attempting to compile a list of contacts for every A.A. group in Western North Carolina. This will enable us to keep the Where & When listings accurate and for each group to receive a copy of the Mountain Doin's. Sometimes we find out that a group has been discontinued only when someone calls and tells us they went to the meeting listed and found no one there. Without current contact information we have no way to verify whether the meeting is still active or not.

A proposal was made to the NCMCO Board that all of the Board members choose a few groups each month to visit, sharing information about Central Office and asking the following questions:

- Is the group getting a free printed copy of the Mountain Doin's? Do people read the newsletter? Does someone print out the digital version and bring it to the meeting?
- Do members know that the Central Office website aaNCMCO.org contains information about meetings, special events, the Mountain Doin's, the Where & When, various forms, pamphlets and links?
- How many group members are 12 Step Call Volunteers? Is anyone interested in participating in the After-hours Hotline? (Information about these service opportunities and forms are available on the website.)
- Are we addressing the needs and concerns of the group and individual members? How can we better serve you and the community at large?

We are looking for suggestions and truly value your input. If your group would like to request a visit from an NCMCO Board member please give us a call – 828-254-8539. Hopefully, this outreach effort will spark greater understanding of the Central Office and its relationship with the A.A. groups and their members in WNC.

With gratitude,
Pam C.
NCMCO Office Manager

Inmate Letter – 10-1-2016

I am an alcoholic. My name is Alan.

My 5th sponsor had me introduce myself as, "I am an alcoholic, my problem is Alan." He also taught me what sponsor shopping was. I was a little embarrassed how naturally it had come to me. AA has taught me a lot of things. It's been a difficult journey of self-discovery, but the rewards have been great. To my amazement, I have found a God of my own misunderstanding.

My life has changed a lot in the last two years. At one point I could not imagine God in my life; these days I could not imagine life without Him. My thanks goes to AA, the fellowship, sponsors who didn't give up, the Steps and a Power greater than myself. I am more than just an alcoholic. I am a father, a husband, a friend, a neighbor, a little league coach, a financial advisor, a retirement planner... and an inmate at Craggy Correctional Center.

The meetings I have found here and at other institutions have helped me deal with this life experience. I am continuing to grow spiritually in spite of this adversity.

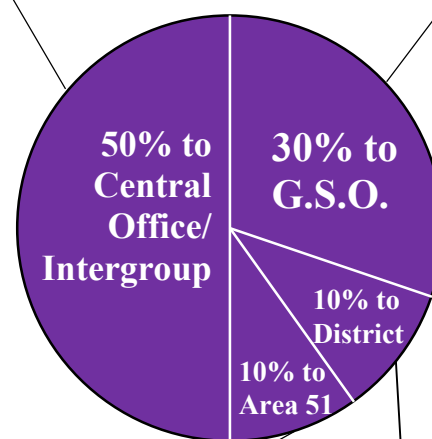

I don't know if AA saved my life or not, but I know I wouldn't be living THIS way without it.
– Alan

A New Freedom

Filmed inside correctional facilities in the U.S. and Canada, this 30 minute video features a diverse group of A.A. members who are currently incarcerated or have been incarcerated and are staying sober one day at a time. They share what it was like when they drank, what happened after participating in A.A. in prison, and what it's like now as a result of working the Twelve Steps and continuing to participate in the A.A. Fellowship. (Available through aa.org online store or through Central Office – 828-254-8539. Item ID: DV-18; Price: $10.00)

District 70 is still in need of new Secretary and

The next volunteer orientation training at Swannanoa Correctional Center for Women will be held on Tuesday January 10th at 6pm. Just show up with a driver's license or state identification card and complete the application. A "blue card" will arrive in the mail shortly afterwards and the gates will open for volunteers to carry the message of hope into our sisters behind the walls. They are asking for folks to bring daytime meetings into the facility as well as the evening meetings. This "blue card" also allows for volunteers and meetings to go into the Black Mountain Treatment Center for Women that houses people sent by probation / parole.

District 70 has a new, improved, awesome website!

Still the same address – ashevilleaa.org – but with a whole new look. (If you have trouble accessing the new site, you probably need to clear your history, otherwise it won't work.) It is still a work in progress – all the meetings have to be entered one at a time – but each day more and more meetings are added and with the newer version you will be able to search by day, place, type, time, etc. In the meantime, for locations that do not yet show meetings, there is a pdf of the current Where & When meeting list. And there are meeting mobile apps for iOS and Android. Congratulations to the new webmaster. This has been a huge undertaking. Well done!

District 71:

GSR Meeting – held the 2nd Saturday of odd-numbered months. The next meeting will be Saturday, January 14, 1:00pm at 1620 Willow Rd, Hendersonville. All interested AAs are invited to attend.

The Corrections Committee is still in need of men volunteers to go into the Henderson County Detention Center. The Henderson County jail requires a training (1-2hr) that everyone must attend before entering the jail. The training should be coming up again in the next couple months – probably on a Tuesday night at 6:30pm. District 71 volunteers go in on Monday nights at 7pm. All who are interested in participating in this vital service please attend the Corrections Committee meeting in February or call Central Office – 828-254-8539 – for contact information.

Does your group have a COR?

(Central Office Representative)

What is a Central Office Representative and What are their Duties?

Central Office Reps (CORs) and their relationship with Central Office are similar to General Service Reps (GSRs) and their relationship with AA General Service Districts. CORs are responsible for voting their group's conscience at COR meetings and to inform the NCMCO Board about any concerns of their AA home group. The CORs try to keep their home groups informed about what the Central Office is doing. CORs are responsible for participating in the quarterly COR meetings, to share their home groups' experiences in carrying the AA message and express how NCMCO may better serve the area's AA Community.

Please check our website:

for the date & location of the next scheduled COR meeting.
