Serving AA in Western North Carolina's Districts 70, 71, and 80 since 1974

Central Office Volunteers - we thank you!

North Carolina Mountain Central Office could not function without the help of volunteers. Here are a few of the things that volunteers do:

- Answer the phone – one of the main activities. Calls usually involve answering inquiries about Alcoholics Anonymous and meetings in WNC. When calls come in from individuals looking for help, volunteers contact AA members on the 12-step volunteer list which is maintained by the 12-step volunteer coordinator. The 12-step volunteer is given the name & phone number of the caller seeking help. (Names & numbers of AA members/volunteers are never given out.)
- Greet and assist visitors who come into the Office to purchase things for themselves or for their groups.
- Help put together orders for books and merchandise to be shipped to groups when requested.
- Fold meeting schedules – a constant activity some days!
- Check in and shelve books and other items that come from various suppliers.
- Help with the printed Mountain Doin's – folding and applying tape, labels and stamps.

If you think you might be interested in volunteering at Central Office - any day Monday - Friday, 10:00am-1:00pm - give us a call at 828-254-8539. Email info@ncmco.net or visit www.aancmco.org

The Little Voice In My Head

For as long as I can remember, I've had this little voice in my head saying, "Wouldn't a drink be nice?" For 42 years that voice was my constant companion, my friend, as well as my worst enemy. I always listened to it, and the answer, of course, was always yes.

I went to six different treatment centers as well as numerous detoxes during those 42 years. I've had several failed marriages and changed careers more times than I can count. I consider myself a fairly intelligent guy, college educated with an emphasis on science, and I've never really believed in a God or any kind of Higher Power. Deep down, for as long as I can remember, I've known I was an alcoholic. But for much of my drinking years, my life had been manageable. Then it wasn't.

One day I came to in the fetal position on my couch after downing another two-liter bottle of vodka. As people often say in the rooms, I was sick and tired of being sick and tired. My wife had been attending Al-Anon meetings to save herself from me and she had a member phone list. She called someone at my request and the rest is history. That was eight years ago.

Here's where the story gets good. Through a miraculous set of events, I got a sponsor who took me to my first AA meeting. I readily admitted I was an alcoholic and that my life was unmanageable. My sponsor asked me if I was willing to do whatever it took to stay sober. I said yes and we dove into the Steps.

Things were progressing nicely but I still, for some reason, had that little voice in my head saying, "Wouldn't a drink be nice?" Now, of course, my answer was no, but the voice remained.

By this time, I had somehow stumbled through Step Two, but really hadn't admitted that I actually believed in a God or a Higher Power. But I heard in a meeting once that if you weren't sure, you could believe that others believed. Now that much I could do.

After I worked through Step Six, my sponsor asked me if I was ready for Step Seven. I had never prayed to anything, but I had told myself I'd do anything it took to stay sober. So I went out to his backyard, got down on my knees and, with some coaching, asked God to please take that little voice in my head away. There was no lightning bolt, no light, no glowing aura. Well, I thought, on to the next Step.

About two months later, I was just sitting in my living room when I realized there was no voice in my head! Thinking this was pretty weird and a little scary, I told my wife. Two more weeks went by and still no little voice. How bizarre. Feeling a little panic set in, I called my sponsor. He gently reminded me of what I'd asked for in his backyard that day.

The voice in my head has been gone now for eight years. I don't give it any more energy or waste any more time thinking about it. I do not fear it or miss it being gone. I thank God every day. And my favorite Step by far now? Wouldn't you know, it's Step Two.
