Serving AA in Western North Carolina's Districts 70, 71, and 80 since 1974

New Years in Akron

I remember . . . the amazing friendliness of Akron AA in 1938. We were given an address book with all names listed (few could afford telephones then) and the earnest invitation to "call at any time." And we did.

I remember . . . meetings. We were from Cleveland, and every Wednesday, rain or snow or shine, we made the 70-mile round trip to Akron. We made it eagerly, willingly, anxious to be with new friends. Often there would be potluck supper on Saturday nights. We were too poor in material possessions to entertain, but how wealthy we were in friendships!

I remember . . . the emphasis on "morning meditation and morning reading," and all of us equipped with the five-cent Upper Room. That was a must.

I remember . . . every lesson that Anne (Smith) dished out in her gentle and inimitable manner. "Dorothy, everyone has been kind to you as a newcomer. Never forget to pass that friendliness and kindness along!"

I remember . . . when several manuscript chapters of "The Book" came. Anne and I read them to each other till 4 a.m., and Anne said, "Pray with me that this will help others."

I remember . . . Anne every time I hear the Twelve Steps read, for the fifth chapter was one that we read so eagerly one night.

I remember . . . our first AA New Year's Eve party in Akron. Anne had gotten two new dresses, her very first new clothes. When I asked her which dress she would wear, she said, "I can't wear a new dress. There will be so many who have no new clothes," and she wore the dress we were so accustomed to seeing on her.

I remember . . . the word spreading like wild-fire. "Bill and Lois are coming!" When they arrived we would all be congregated to greet them. They would hide their weariness (as they still do) and greet us with warmth and affection.

I remember . . . it says in the Big Book "We are like the passengers of a great liner the moment after rescue from shipwreck."

How true it was of us then!

Important input from a local AA Group:

Several groups have made their meeting child-friendly ("c-f" on the Where & When) which, in keeping with our third tradition, is a really great thing. Even if a meeting is not listed as child-friendly, groups usually (and should) allow a parent to attend. One important thing for a parent to remember is please do not allow your child to roam around the meeting room or the facility where the meeting is held. Remember we are all welcomed guests where we meet and if a child were to get hurt or hurt someone else it could jeopardize the group's use of the meeting space. Thank you.

Here is a link for the Corrections Committee flyer: <http://ashevilleaa.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/09/Corrections-Flyer.pdf>

The Buncombe County Detention Facility has varying needs of support for meetings inside the jail. Here is a new application for volunteering at BCDF:

<http://aancmco.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/Volunteer-App-12-18-17.pdf> Any AA member wanting to volunteer at BCDF needs to be referred or recommended to service by a local Corrections Chairperson or current jail volunteer. This will provide an umbrella of order and accountability with whomever enters the building with the organization. Applications, with the above identified references/recommendations named on the application, can be sent directly to Sarah Regala, Program Director at BCDF: Sarah.Regala@buncombecounty.org. AA members new to town need to connect with District Corrections Chairpersons/meetings/volunteers for referrals.

Volunteers are needed for upcoming area events; please contact Joe.

District 71:

GSR Meeting – held the 2nd Saturday of the month. The next meeting will be Saturday, December 8, 9:30am. 1624 Willow Rd, Hendersonville, 28739. The Corrections Committee now meets in conjunction with the GSR meeting.

Submitted by Terry G., Alternate DCM:

“This is a very exciting time for District 71. We have 25 registered groups plus meetings. Several new GSRs have been elected in the past few weeks with a few more who are standing and waiting for their groups to vote them in.

“We are excited to have our Spanish-speaking meeting relocate to Fletcher and also increase the number of meetings to three a week. The new location is 5360 Hendersonville Rd (Smiley’s Flea Market) #849, Fletcher 28732.

“By the Grace of God, with the increase in AA members who are willing to serve, we have filled the positions of Grapevine, CPC/PI, and Corrections Chairpersons. We still have Treatment and Events chairs to fill.

We are excited to see the enthusiasm and encourage continued participation at our district meetings.”

The Corrections Committee is in need of men volunteers to take A.A. meetings into the Transylvania County Jail and the Henderson County Detention Center. All who are interested in participating in this vital service please attend the District 71 GSR - Corrections Committee meeting in December, or call/email Central Office – 828-254-8539; info@ncmco.net – for contact information.

District 80:

GSR District Meeting will be Sunday, January 20, 1:30pm, at Jackson County Family Resource Center, 1528 Webster Rd., Webster 28788. They will be looking for a new Corrections Chairperson. All interested A.A. members are welcome to attend.

There is a concern about the lack of 12-Step Call Volunteers, especially in some of the more remote parts of Western NC. The Murphy Central Office only covers a small area. And while the NC Mountain Central Office covers all of Districts 70, 71 and 80 there is a shortage of volunteers on the 12-Step Call list in the counties within District 80. All who are interested in this service are encouraged to call Central Office – 828-254-8539 – or check the website: www.aaNCMCO.org

Matt C., the coordinator for meetings taken into the Appalachian Community Services Center located at 91 Timberlane Rd in Balsam, said they need volunteers to take AA meetings into the facility. The meetings are every Monday and Wednesday at 6 pm and every other Saturday at 5:30. If you are interested in participating in this service please email or call Matt: mbcomins@gmail.com - 201-657-4542.

The next NCMCO Board meeting will be Thursday, December 13, 6:00pm, 70 Woodfin Place, Suite 212 (just down the hall from Central Office), Asheville 28801.

The next quarterly combined COR/NCMCO Board meeting will be Thursday, January 10, 6:00pm, at the same location. All are welcome to attend the Board meetings and the combined COR/Board meetings but only Central Office Representatives can vote on issues, so we encourage all groups to send a COR! Volunteers are needed for upcoming area events; please contact Joe.
